
Working on a Ministry Team

Being able to work harmoniously on a ministry team is a good test of character and leadership. Learning to be a good team member is a pre-requisite for team leadership. Apprentices' relational weaknesses come to the fore in teamwork and can be addressed.

Exercise

Work on a ministry team, such as a staff team, Sunday School team, mission team etc.

Aims

1. To assess the character and capacity of Apprentice in working with others.
2. To teach the elements of successful teamwork.

Trainers

- Work through assessment sheet with Apprentices (see following page).
- Discuss the elements of successful teamwork

'Work on a Ministry Team' Assessment Sheet

Area	Making Progress	Needs Work	Action
Working under others' authority
Working for the leader to make them successful
Working to make team members successful
Team agenda before own
Working hard at secondary roles
Working with lay leaders
Facilitating others' contributions in meetings
Anticipating where leader wants to take the discussion
Punctuality			