Description of ministry.

Campbelltown Anglican Church is a growing church in south-west Sydney with a large staff and an opening for a female apprentice who will work with young adults and women across the parish. The apprentice will have opportunities to teach the bible, evangelise the nations and learn skills for leadership in a variety of ministries. Mentoring and training is provided by female ordained staff and enrolment in a course of theological study at an ACT accredited college is compulsory. WWCC and willingness to undertake Safe Ministry is essential.
